Yearbook Celebrates Bicentennial

"Flash" becomes Syd Sterling's nickname.

The flags waving, the bands playing, the people singing. In our bicentennial year, over two hundred million Americans celebrated our 200th birthday as a free nation.

The Yearbook and Newspaper staff celebrated the bicentennial year with a program entitled "We The People." Featured in the program was a narrative about the U.S. flag by Dee Debano, a portrait of Betsy Ross by Marcy Williams, the story of two soldiers using a deck of cards as their Bible by Kelly Keast and Brenda Conrad, and an interpretation by Debbie Ward as Lily Tomlin's famous Edith Ann.

For the musical portion of the program, the brass choir played "God of Our Fathers," and Oh! Suzannah!" The Jr.-Sr. Girls Ensemble sang "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" and "American Folk Trilogy," and Becky Hedges sang "The Preamble of the Contitution." Following "God Bless America" and a presentation of a layered birthday cake, everyone joined in wishing America "Happy Birthday."

Selling ads turns out to be fun for Mark Price, Lesa Houston, and Lynette Hargett.

There is always plenty of work for everyone. Here Terry Coulter, Terrie Wilson, Sheri Lawson, Tracy Mathis, and Wilma Kiser work on the "spirit" and layouts.

ORGANIZATIONS

SYD CHOSEN BY STUDENTS

As the tension mounted on September 19, three SB senior girls presented their talents in the STUCO-sponsored competition for Miss South Barber of 1975. Syd Sterling began with her original reading presentation of "Teenage Daydreams." She was followed by Becky Hedges's collection of songs from Jesus Christ Superstar and Debbie Ward's interpretation of Lily Tomlin's Edith Ann. Anxiety mounted as the students filed from the auditorium to cast their ballots. While the ballots were counted, students and faculty were entertained by John Terwort with a drum solo. Mr. Jim Wilson announced the new Miss South Barber, Miss Syd Sterling, as she was presented with a bouquet of flowers by STUCO President Jim Hartzell.

Awaiting the announcement are John Forester, Scott Mathews, and Jim Hartzell.

Posing minutes after the crowning are Debbie, Syd, and Becky.

Performing her vocal solo is Becky Hedges.

Becoming involved with her Edith Ann presentation is contestant Debbie Ward.

STUDO President Jim Hartzell presents newly crowned Syd with a kiss.

As she presents her reading, Syd gains the audience's praise.

Stuco Makes It Happen

This year the Student Council strove to bring the faculty and student body closer together. They were busy with their own many activities, but they never were too busy to participate in other activities.

Stuco was in charge of the operation of the coke machine in the commons area. They sponsored basketball homecoming with Dee Debano reigning as queen and Stuco member John Forester as her escort.

The annual Christmas party was an important event of the year for Stuco. Much hard work went into the making of another fun and exciting party for everyone. Again, Stuco really makes it happen!

Fun and games take place at the Christmas Party.

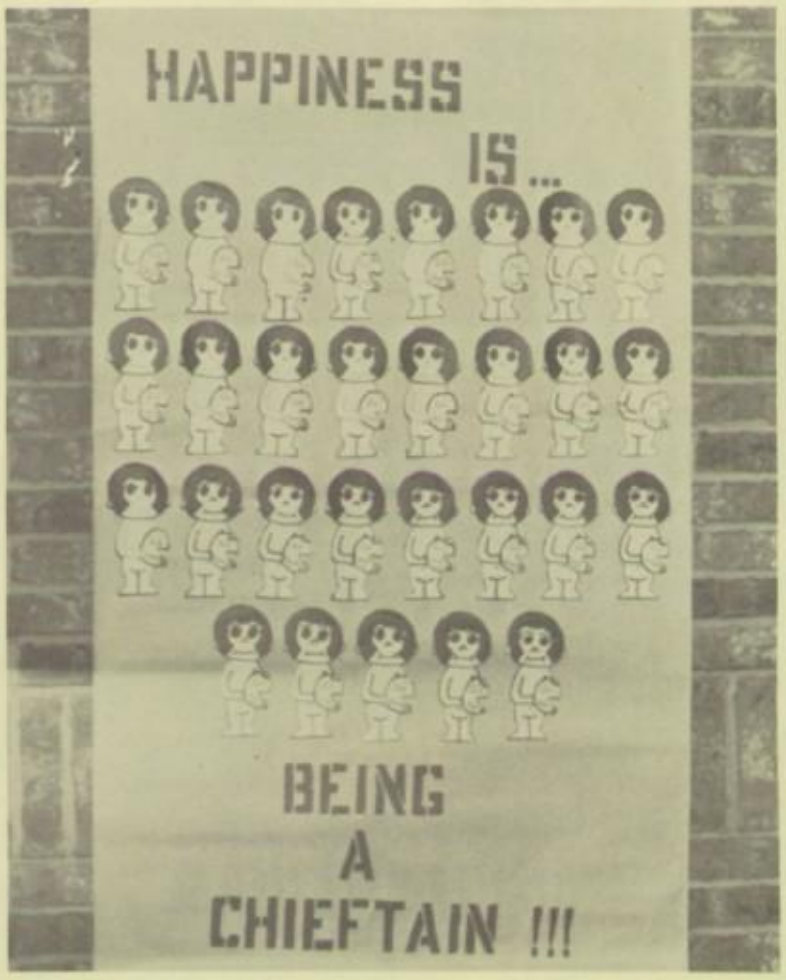
President Roberta Graves

We've got spirt. . .yes, we do! And it all started before school took up. It began when the cheerleaders went to camp and brought back one spirit stick and four blue ribbons.

As the year got under way, the cheerleading squads were excited about getting new outfits.

The pep club did a great deal to spread spirit. Signs have always been a part of raising spirit, and new yells were thought up. They put on their annual powderpuff game and sponsored special days like Western Day, Dressup Day, and Black and Gold Day.

As the year came to an end, the pep club could look back on an eventful year with satisfaction and look forward to an even more eventful year.



A lot of time and hard work go into the making of signs. Left: The cheerleaders always give a welcome to out-of-town cheerleaders.

Shawn Is Our Powder Puff Queen

The annual Powderpuff football game, sponsored by the South Barber Pep Club, was held Monday, September 29, at Ellis Field.

The activities started with the FFA Sweetheart contest.

Shawn Johnson was elected by the student body as Powderpuff Queen. Other contestants for the crown were Larry Eckert, Kelly McNett, Clifford McKinney, Jim Hartzell, Scott Mathews, Chuck Hadley, and Jeff Black.

Approximately 30 girls participated in the tie game after the "Sweetheart" contest. Coaches for the two teams were Mary and Ron Hill.

SBHS Students cheered when Shawn Johnson was announced as 1975 Powderpuff Queen.

In an attempt to make a touchdown, Lori Bergren, no. 51, of the gold team ran with the ball.

"Look . . . Forward With Hope"

The FHA girls worked hard this year to live up to their district motto, "Look backward with pride and forward with hope." Pride was felt with the success of the Heritage Banquet held in November for the FHA members, their parents, and the administration. Each girl brought a dish depicting her nationality.

Again this year the girls had the "House of Lloyd Sales Kit" as their money-making project with Brenda Wright winning the distinction of having the greatest amount in sales.

Wrapping and delivering Christmas presents to the Achenbach Nursing Center is always a meaningful experience.

In addition to their local meetings, the girls attended the district meeting in Coldwater, the regional meeting in Stafford, and the state meeting in Topeka.

As the FHA emblem states, this group looks "Toward New Horizons."

A Heritage Banquet was held for the FHA girls and their parents.

FFA Keeps Busy

The FFA had an extremely busy year. For money making projects the group had a watermelon booth, a car bash, and a horseshoe pitching contest at the park on Labor Day; took their turn having charge of the concession stand at athletic events; sold magazines and cow bells; had a calf fry; and earned $1850 at their annual slave auction.

The group stayed busy participating in various contests across the state and placed 4th in the crop competition at Arkansas City. They also hosted an Invitational Judging contest at the Kiowa Sale Company.

For fun the group attended the state fair in Hutchinson and the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City.

They also attended the State FFA Convention in Manhattan and the National FFA Convention in Kansas City. Completing the year was the FFA Awards Banquet.

Pulling clean bowls from the dishwasher is Rick Rugg, proud of his accomplishments.

Salting soup has always been a specialty of Tom Sternberger. David Abbott and Fred Talbott wait to taste it.

Trying to keep John Rathgeber's mind on rinsing bowls is Mr. McGinley, I.A. sponsor.

"Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and caldron bubble," quote John Forester, John Terwort, and Jeff Black as they pretend they are the three witches in Macbeth.

Always ready to please Mayor Wetz is Jim Hartzell at the annual soup supper.

Trying to get supper over so the film can begin are Mr. McGinley, John Terwort, Brian Marshall, and Shawn Johnson.

Marx Brothers

Pop, soup, covered dish supper, Wichita, and films provided recreation for the Industrial Arts Club as it worked its way through the year.

The group, under the direction of Mike McGinley, went to Wichita November 14 to visit the Nickelson Tool and Dye Company, Watkins, Inc., and Beech Aircraft. The assembly-line techniques and modern production methods made the trip a very educational one. The nice-looking restroom signs in the commons area were made by this industrious group.

December 6 the group held its annual soup supper. Using 40 pounds of beef for the chili and 46 pounds of poultry for the chicken-noodle soup, the boys served their way through another successful fund-raising event. Completing the year with a covered dish supper, the boys enjoyed being entertained by the incredulous Marx Brothers. All in all it has been a busy and fun year for the I. A. Club.

"Not on my arm, Marty", scolds Mr. McGinley, as Marty Williams, Chuck Hadley, and Gary Johnson try to make tea.

"Keep your thumb out of the salad, Marty," warns Gary Jacobs, Chuck Hadley, and Gary Johnson to Marty Williams.

Working in the concession stand is one of I. A. Club's money-making projects. Here Rick Rugg, Clay Spicer, Marty Williams, and Mr. McGinley keep busy at half-time.

"You slicked her up for another year, boys. What a mess soup is." Fred Talbott, John Terwort, John Rathgeber, John Forester, Mr. McGinley, David Abbott, Rick Rugg, Tom Sternberger.

"Don't tell me to keep my thumb out of the salad," quips Marty Williams to Chuck Hadley. Gary Jacobs ponders, "I can't believe I'll eat the whole thing."

Potpourri

Much time and concentration is needed for art student, Marcy Williams while she works on her watercolor.

Study hall students Sam Sterling and Scott Mathews enjoy relaxing in the lounge while they study their books.

Speech student Linda Becker is able to use her experience with make-up on the cast members of the play.

The FHA group listen intently to a guest speaker.

Psychology students Scott Rathgeber and Bill Cox get almost as much enjoyment from playing with toys as the children they are studying.

Time out was taken for Terry Coulter's birthday by the yearbook staff. Looking on as Syd Sterling puts a piece of cake in Terry's mouth are staff members Sheri Lawson, Wilma Kiser, Lesa Houston, and Terrie Wilson.

Shot day always brings considerable excitement to the students, especially for Senior Larry Eckert.

Taking an interest in dissecting is biology student Derrick Parscal.

ACTIVITIES

Music . . .

Music created a special world for the many students enrolled in the seven vocal groups. A well-filled schedule kept members busy entertaining clubs and churches, as well as going to contests, giving concerts, and going on tour with the jazz ensemble.

Following the helpful comments, "Develop the vowels" and "You must feel the music" by director Lawrence Krehbiel, the music groups prepared for contest. The following ratings were earned:

The Chamber Singers perform for the students and faculty!

Boasting an increase in enrollment, the band, under the direction of Cort McClaren, worked diligently to bring home I ratings at both league and state festivals.

Anyone walking down "music hall" throughout the year could hear the instrumental department preparing for their performances at all home football games, all pep ralleys and home basketball games, and for concerts. The jazz ensemble also went on a spring tour to Caldwell, Kansas, and Medford, Oklahoma.

The instrumental department hosted two clinics: one for the Percussive Art Society of which Mr. McClaren is chairman and the second for the MAL jazz ensembles.

All in all, for the instrumental department it was a "Grand Ol' Year!"

South Barber debators developed cases and practiced briefs to show an increase in debate rounds won. This year the teams won 45% of their rounds at regional as compared to only 11% last year. However, debate is more than winning rounds; it is gaining valuable experience.

The students attending speech festivals qualified four for state contest; the individuals received four I's at regional and two I's at state. Covering all areas from duet acting to informative speaking, the students and Mr. Hinds attended four forensic festivals. State results were as follows: Becky Hedges, Informative Speech and Dramatic Interpretation, two I's; Wilma Kiser, Prose Interpretation, II; Clay Spicer and Chuck Hadley, Improvised Duet Act, II.

Forensics has been an important part of school for Becky Hedges. Here she is practicing her informative speech, "Tampering With Genetics."

Delivering the prose interpretation, "Eric," is Wilma Kiser.

At the fine arts faculty recital, Mr. Hinds presented a humorous monologue of Mark Twain on a typical lecture tour.

Our Hearts Were Young And Gay

On Tuesday, November 18, the Juniors and Seniors presented "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a three-act play about two girls who were on board an oceanliner bound for France. The girls wanted to gain their independence from their parents, but in so doing encountered such hardships as a drowning man, safety pockets, bed bugs, and measles.

Cornelia Otis Skinner . . . . . Becky Hedges

Winifred Blaugh. . . . . Robbie Reed
Harriet St. John. . . . . Marcy Williams
Inspector. . . . . Brian Marshall
Window Cleaner. . . . . Darwin Gates
Stewardess. . . . . Lori Bergren

After rehearsal, Jim H., Clifford M., Bill C., and Debbie Ward, listen as director H. Hinds gives pointers for improvement on the play.

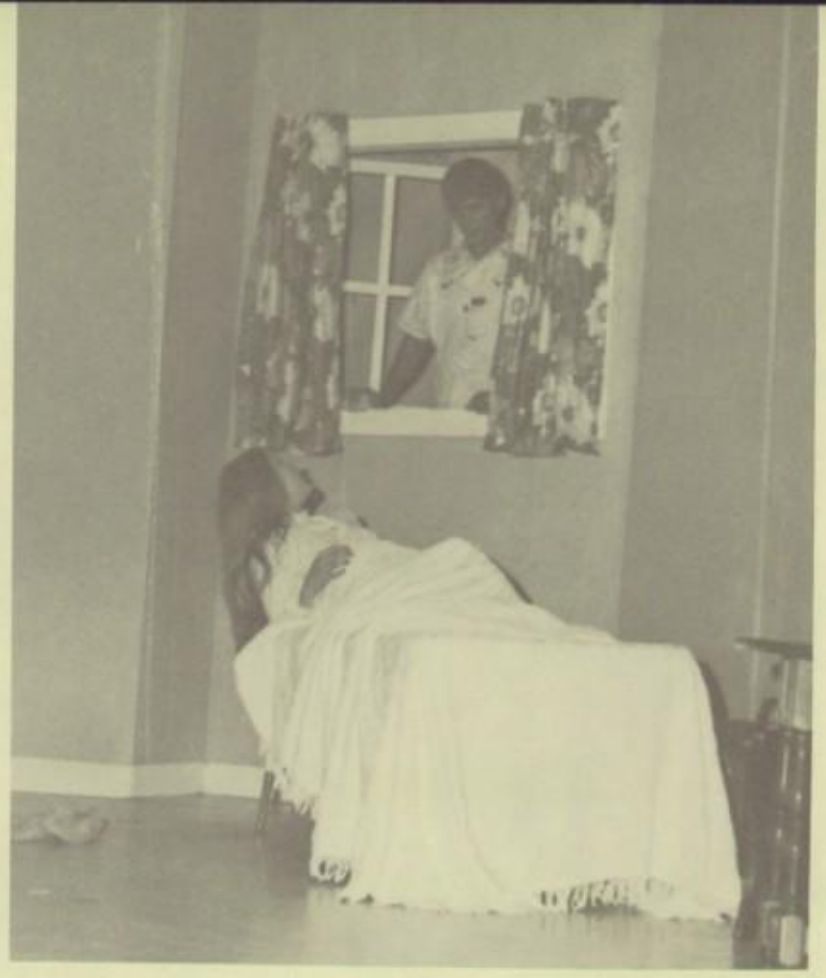
Helping Cornelia, who has taken the three day measles, leave the oceanliner are Dick, Leo and Emily.

Happiness abounds after Emily learns that she did not kill the drowning man when she threw him a deck chair instead of a life preserver. Looking on are Winfred, Harriet, Steward, Pursor, Admiral, Dick and Leo.

Winfred and Harriet borrow Cornelia and Emily's sink to brush their teeth.

Inspector of the ocernliner scares Cornelia, Dick, and Leo when he asks Emily to step out in the hall for a second.

Back Row: Terrie W., Chuck H., Jim H., Lesa H., Clifford M., Front Row: Judy B., Fred T., Jamie F., Linda B. The stage crew really worked hard for a successful play.



Emily is awaken by a singing window washer.

While Cornelia is trying her acting ability, Emily tries to impress Monsieur De'La Croix.

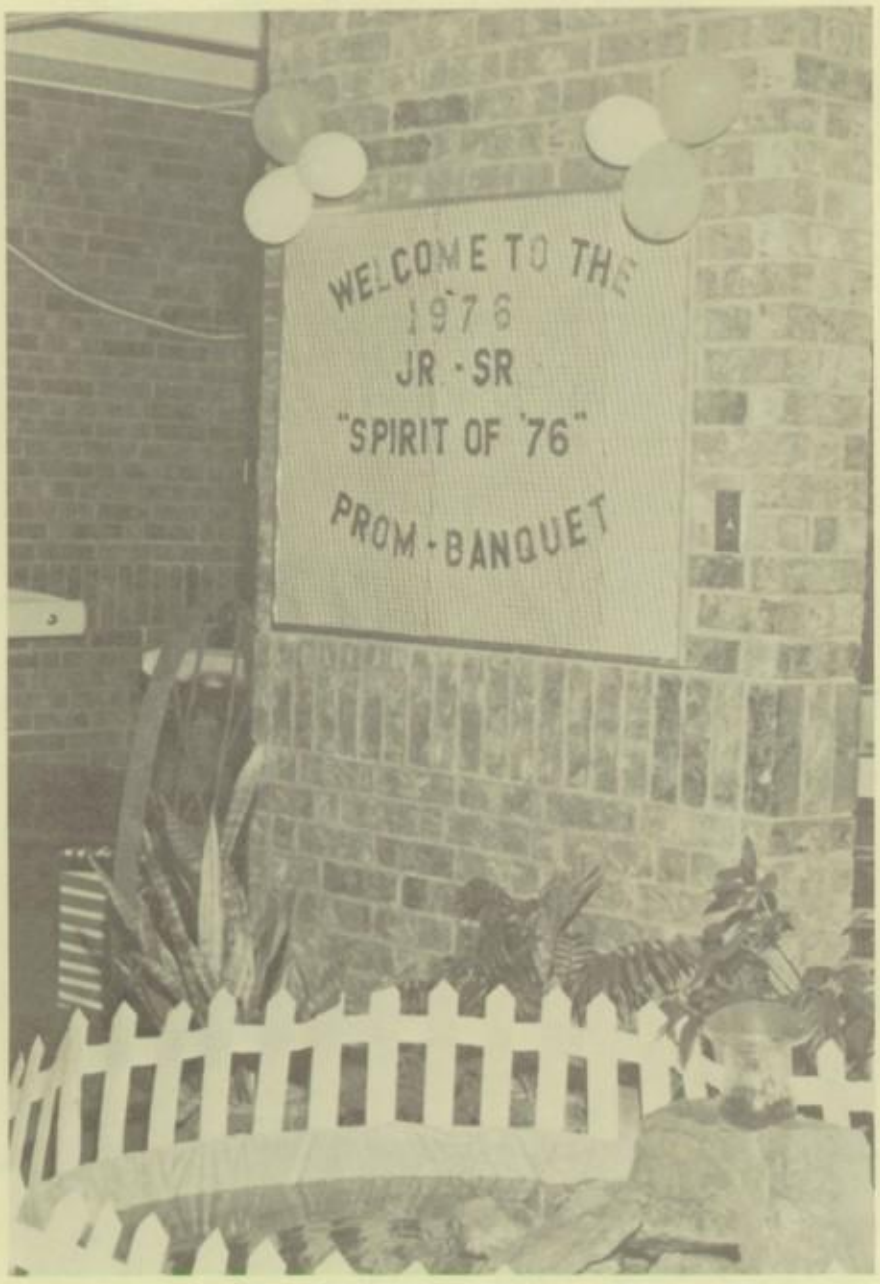
Spirit Of '76



Students are welcomed to the Jr.-Sr. Prom by this fountain and sign proclaiming the "Spirit of '76."

Waiting patiently for the servers to bring the food are Tammy Holcomb, Kelly McNett, Susan Helmley, and Larry Eckert.

Honoring the seniors with a banquet and prom was again a memorable event for the junior class. A red, white, and blue motif carried out the "Spirit of '76" theme, complete with historical documents, pictures of the 37 presidents, and the original and present day flags festooning the walls. At one end of the banquet room was a flowing fountain, while at the opposite end was a replica of the Liberty Bell. Red and blue candles were used as centerpieces on the quartet tables with Uncle Sam's hat as nutcups. Carrying out the Americana theme, the meal consisted of punch, beef tips, baked potato, corn, garlic bread, and red, white, and blue ice cream.

At the entrance to the dance floor stood the Statue of Liberty, beckoning the students to enjoy the music of Braxus. Parents of the juniors had charge of the punch table.

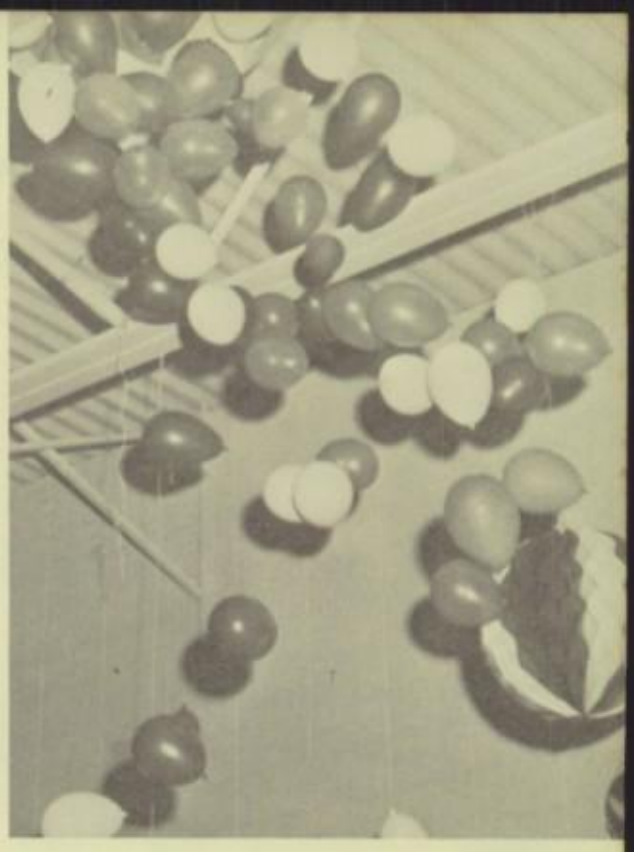
Under the leadership of Miss Fritze and Mr. Hinds, junior class sponsors, the "Spirit of '76" will live forever in the hearts of the juniors and seniors of SBHS.

Junior Class President, Robbie Reed, welcomed the group to the banquet and presented a special poem, "To The Seniors."

With a lot of spirit John Terwort, Jamie Feaster, Mitch Hunter, and Linda Merrihew enjoy the banquet.

Local businessman, Bob Sterling, challenges the students to "Do something, if you do it wrong."

Giving a humorous resume' of the seniors' past years, Brenda Wright, Senior President, says thank you for the 1976 banquet and prom.



Another of the juniors' surprises was releasing balloons from the ceiling during the sixth dance.

While Dee Debano keeps her eyes on her toes, others enjoying the dance are Tony Archuleta, Lynette Hargett, Jim Hartzell, Cliff McKinney, and Linda Becker.

"What's that funny odor," wonders David Abbott in the midst of a toe-tappin' dance.

Sophomores ecstatic with the idea of serving the banquet are Jeff Sternberger, Becky Roark, Jeff Miller, Lynne Murrow, Sam Sterling, Laurie Newton, Clay Spicer, and Brenda Conrad.

Booster Club Supports

The Booster Club again this year supported the school in its activities. Left are officers Patsy Wilson, Secretary; Chuck Helmley, President; Chuck Hadley, Vice-president; and Billie Summers, Treasurer. Serving refreshments at the awards assembly are Billie Summers and Beverly Gillig.

CLASSICS

"I Have Not Yet Begun To Fight"

Entering high school was a new experience for the freshmen. Roaming strange halls and entering new classes was all part of their first year of high school.

Part of their new curriculum was drivers ed. class and watching for the other guy. Though they didn't have the variety of classes to choose from as the higher grades did, there was something different every day.

With the boys busy in woodworking class making all kinds of funiture and items for various uses and the girls in home ec. learning the proper way to cook, clean, economize, ect., the freshman day was a full one.

The freshmen eagerly await the end of the '75-'76 school year in order to begin a new year and move one more step higher on the ladder leading to their graduation from high school.

"These Are The Times That

Becoming a more integral part of high school life, the sophomores looked forward to completing the required subjects of English, Biology, and their electives ranging from art and music to geometry and typing.

The election of officers found Jeff Sternberger, president; Sam Sterling, STUCO Representative; Cheri Hadley, Secretary; Kevin Williams, Vice President; and Clay Spicer, Treasurer.

Even though they were looking forward to being Juniors, they contented themselves with ordering their class rings and serving at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet.

The Sophomores have ended two of their high school years and are looking forward to the final two.

The Class of 1977 returned to the academic life and activity participation to begin where they left off as sophomores. Being active in athletics, debate, speech, music, and other activities, the 43 juniors maintained pride in these areas. They buckled down to the routine of class work: Writing term papers, studying American history, working equations, and completing practice sets. Projects and planning began early to prepare for the prom to be held in April.

The class sold magazines to earn money to make their prom exciting and the "best ever."

With the closing of the school year and the last echo of "J-J-J-U-N-I-I-I-O-R." the junior class looks forward to the year of 1977.

"What We Are To Be, We Are Becoming"

Our nation--200 years old. Just as America grew from the original 13 colonies to the 50 states, the 38 seniors have grown in 13 years to become the 1976 graduating class. As our bi-centennial year fell on a four-year Presidential election, the primaries were held each week to narrow the people's choice of the man who would run our country. While the people elect our President, the Senior class elected their own governing body. The officers were Brenda Wright, President; Jeff Black, Vice-President; Syd Sterling, Secretary; Dee Debano, Treasurer; and Bert Graves, STUCO Representative. Facing many decisions throughout the year, the Seniors chose as their colors, Harvest Gold and Royal Blue; flower, yellow rose; motto, "What We Are To Be, We Are Becoming;" and song, "Our Last Song Together."

As It Sadly Passes, We Will Never Stop The Sands Of Time.

After teaching elementary education for thirty four years, Mrs. Maurine Allen retired from the teaching profession in May of 1976. Of her many students she taught, nine of those compose the graduating class of 1976.

The senior class paused from their busy schedule to remember a classmate who was killed in June, 1971. Chuck Pollock was a shy but happy person whom we will always remember as our friend.

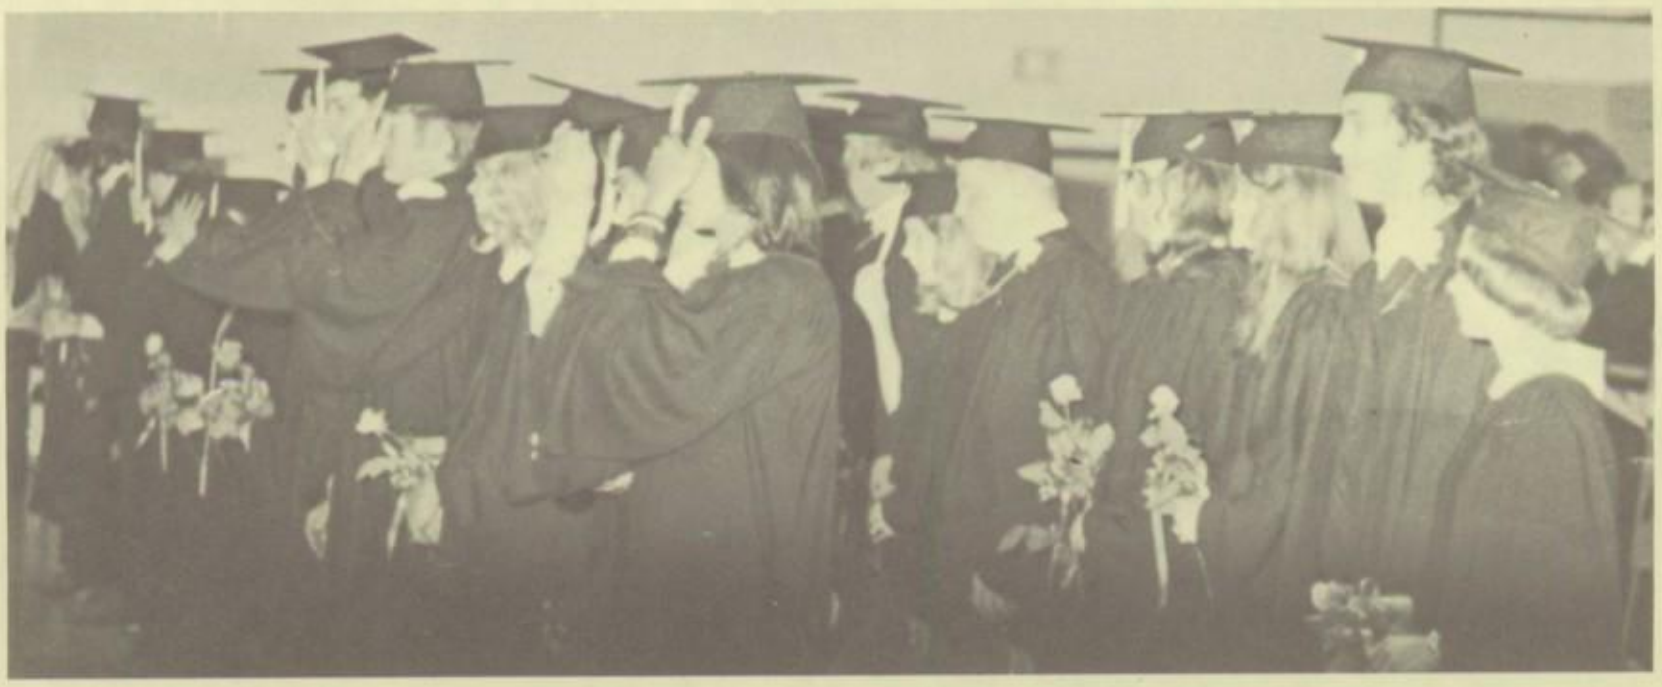
"Our Life Has Just Begun"

Seven steps to success were given to the seniors by baccalaureate speaker Rev. Tom Jones.

Waiting for the signal to line up are Scott Mathews, John Forester, Mark Price, Jim Hartzell, and Brenda Wright.



Replacing their hats after the benediction, the seniors wait for the recessional.

Hark!!

"You're right guys, it is 2' 13 1/2" says Jim Hartzell to John Forester, Scott Rathgeber, Jeff Black, and Scott Mathews.

"Can I get out now that I've raised my bail??" asks Annette Conrad.

"Oh no!! Gum under the table again!?" screaches Larry Horn.

The Bionic Mouth, Shawn Johnson.

"Stick 'em up!" demands Larry Eckert with his deadly gun.

"Mr. Marshall said for y'all to report to the office," says deputy Scott Rathgeber to John Forester during Pep Club's Western Day.

Elated that school is over are Belinda Hitchcock, Judy Burns, and Terrie Wilson.

South Barber's demolition derby, Crunchin' Connie Newton and Crashin' Kelly McNett.

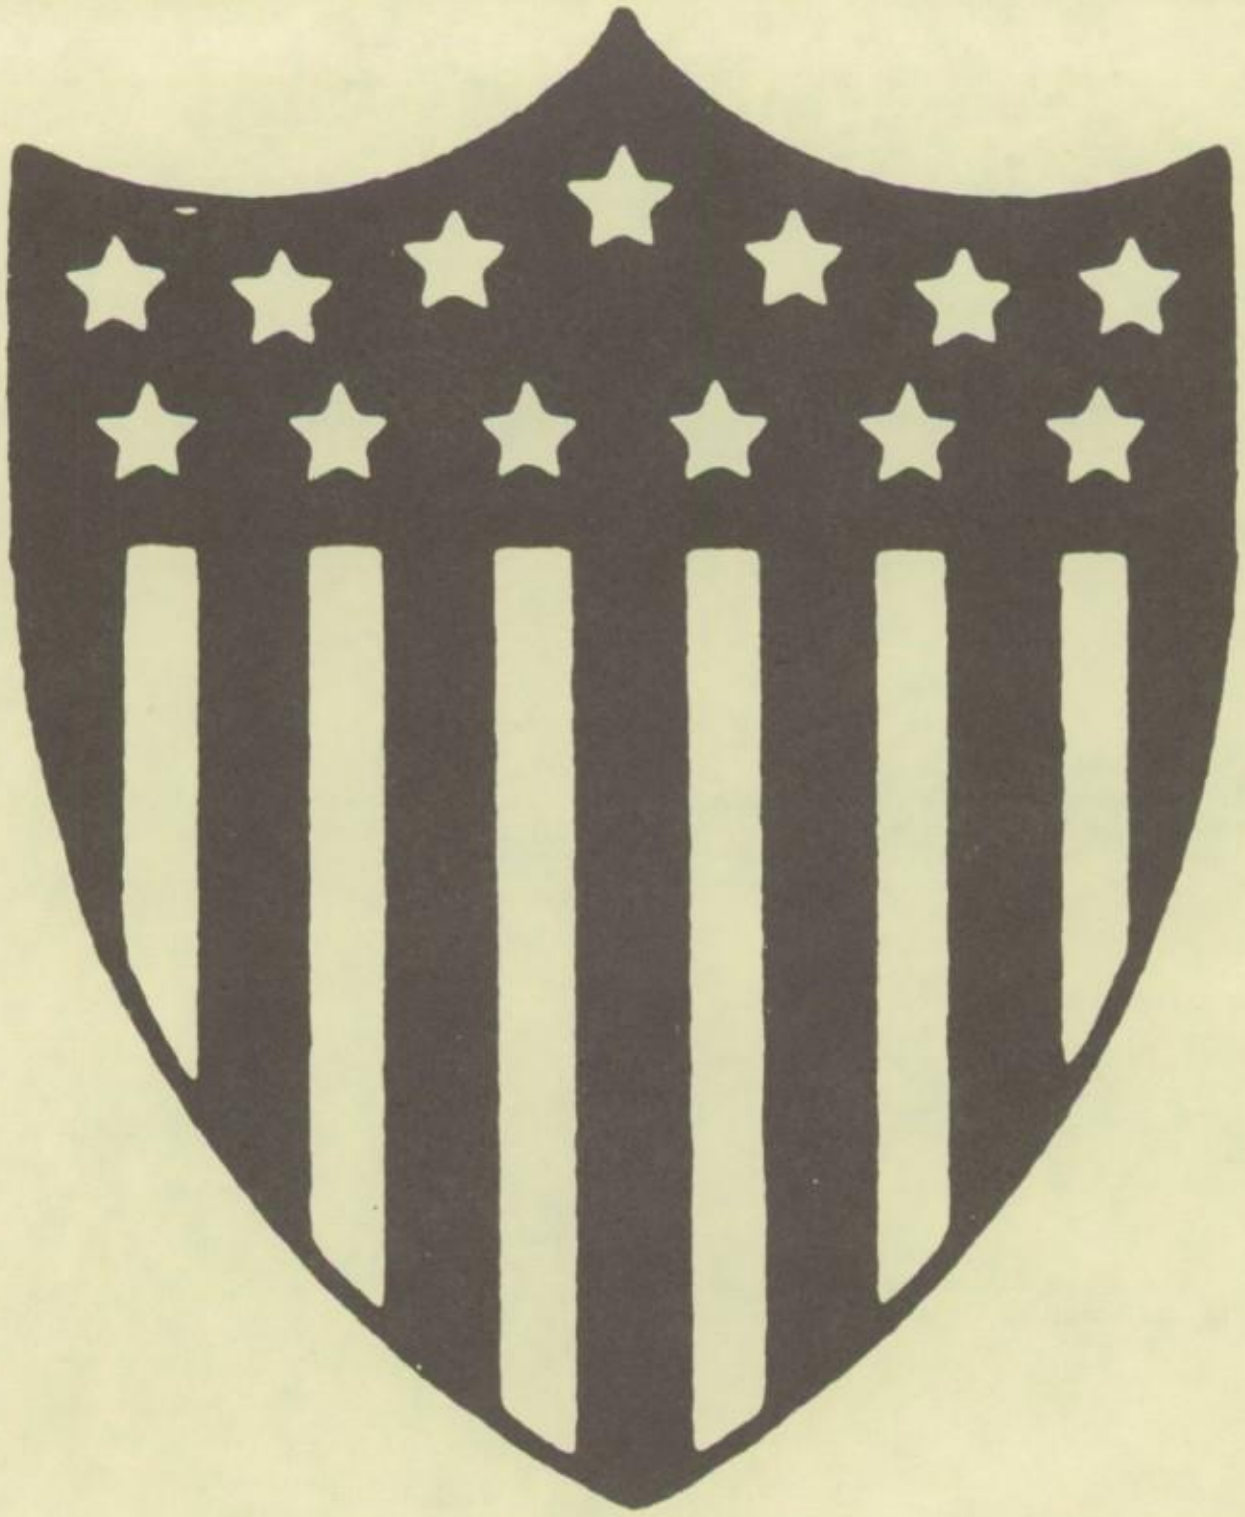
Judging from our troops, it's obvious why the British thought they could win.

"You're getting very, very sleepy," drone Karen Stevens and Becky Hedges as they hypnotize Brenda Wright in Speech class.

"I wonder whose gum this is," muses Cliff McKinney. "I'll just rinse it off . . ."

"I set the clock back," thinks Cliff McKinney as Lesa Houston, Dee Ann Debano, and Scott Mathews wait for school to end.

SPORTS



A Monumental Experience

The fall sport of Football brought 29 boys out from the short summer vacation to compete for the South Barber Chieftain football squad.

The squad consisted of 10 Seniors who led the Chieftains to a 2-7 record, bettering last year's record of 0-9.

The Chieftains other than Larry Horn and Jim Hartzell receiving League honors were Nick Hitchcock, 1st Team Offensive Back; Brian Marshall, 1st Team Defensive Back: Terry Coulter, Honorable Mention Offensive End; and Mark Watts, Honorable Mention Defensive Tackle.

The weather varied from warm nights to the expected rain, but the boys fought hard and agreed that football is -- a monumental experience.

Homecoming Queen for 1975-76, Lynette Hargett.

Students Choose Lynette

The night of Friday, October 18 brought a new light in the life of Lynette Hargett when she heard her name announced as Football Homecoming Queen for the 1975-76 school year.

The Homecoming ceremony took place before the game started. The three candidates were Lynette Hargett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hargett, escorted by Clifford McKinney; Annette Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Conrad, escorted by Shawn Johnson; and Roberta Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graves, escorted by Larry Horn.

Queen Lynette's attendants were Lori Bergren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bergren, escorted by John Terwort; Brenda Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Conrad, escorted by Russ Molz; and D'Narda White, daughter of Mrs. Lazetta White, escorted by Mike Wolgamott.

The assistants to the Queen were Rodney Blunk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Blunk; Jody Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mason; Carrie Spriggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Spriggs; and Stuart Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Noble.

Following the game, the students, faculty, and alumni gathered at the high school and danced to the music of Braxus.

When asked how she felt about this special night, Queen Lynette replied, "I couldn't believe that it really happened to me! It was like a childhood dream come true!"

Arriving on the field are candidates Lynette Hargett, Annette Conrad, and Bert Graves

Escorting Queen Lynette from the field is Clifford McKinney.

Roberta Graves, Jody Mason, Annette Conrad, Rodney Blunk, Queen Lynette Hargett, Lori Bergren, Stuart Noble, Brenda Conrad, Carrie Spriggs, D'Narda White.

Dancing about the Bonfire is SBHS Chieftain Marcy Williams.

The Candidates are introduced by Syd Sterling at the Bonfire.

Volleyball Meets With Success

Connie Newton

Karen Stevens

There was lots of spirit and playing ability on the volleyball courts this year, as the girls, under the direction of Coach Dennis Rowland played their hearts out to win. The A-Team ended its season with a 10-6 record and third place at Regionals. The B-Team ended its season with a 1-4 record.

The volleyball team also hosted a tournament on October 16. There were five schools participating. South Barber won the matches between Cheney and Kingman but lost the matches between Sharon and Garden Plain.

In Regionals, the girls placed third after defeating Macksville, Skyline, and Sharon. This was the first time any South Barber girls' team has won against Sharon. South Barber was defeated by Pretty Prairie in the third game which put them against Sharon to play for third.

DeeAnn Debano

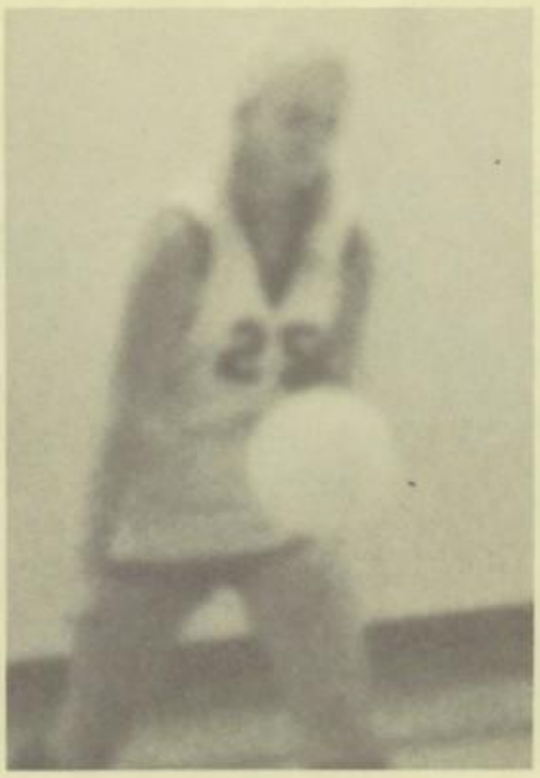
While preparing to start play, Coach Rowland gives last minute instructions.



Hoping to get another point is Laurie Newton.

Team waits for official score.

As D'Narda White bumps the ball across, Cheri Hadley, Karen Stevens, and Deb Michel wait to assist.

Serving for a point is Connie Newton.

Waiting for the official call are Deb Michel and Dee Debano.

Bert Graves was the only Senior Tennis player this year!

The young girls' tennis team struggled through an up-and-down season to bring home second place in two different meets. Mr. Hinds, newly-appointed tennis coach, stated that he enjoyed working with the girls and believes this year's experience will be of great benefit to the building program that was underway this year.

With loosing only one senior, the team has experienced a year to grow and learn and are looking forward to a more competitive season next year!

Jamie Feaster and Bert Graves enjoy taking it easy and relaxing!

Lori Bergren returns the hit hard and fast!

Linda Merrihew hits the ball while having fun!

Becky Roark and Lynne Murrow team up in doubles!

The tennis team had a very good season this year taking a 2nd place at Alva, 3rd place at Pratt and many 1st and 3rd place medals along with a trophy. Senior John Forester and brother Danny, a Sophomore, took 1st place in No. 1 doubles at the regional tennis tournament at Larned which qualified them to go to state. All this was accomplished with the return of 5 lettermen from last year.

South Barber is looking forward to a new and younger team next year.

A Year Of Capital

Immediately following the football season twenty boys joined Coach Kruse for the start of the '75-'76 basketball season.

After enjoying a 5-1 record at the Christmas break, the Chieftains suffered through the second half of the season to a final record of 9-7.

The highlight of the season was defeating the Medicine Lodge Indians twice; first 80-77 in a thrilling overtime game held on our home court, and second at Medicine Lodge, 50-48 on a last-second shot after a bomb threat caused a delay in the game.

Chieftains receiving League honors were John Forester and Bill Cox, First Team; Jose Ruiz and Scott Mathews, Honorable Mention.

Dee Elected

Tension mounted as the homecoming candidates and attendants entered the court through an archway of war lances before a capacity crowd when the Chieftains met Sedgwick.

On February 6, Dee Ann Debano was crowned as 1976 Basketball Homecoming Queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Debano and was escorted by John Forester. Other candidates include Becky Hedges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hedges, escorted by Jose Ruiz; and Debbie Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ward, escorted by Bill Cox.

Attendants were as follows: Junior, Vicki Swartz, escorted by Terry Coulter; Sophomore, Becky Roark, escorted by Gary Johnson; and Freshman, Marcia Kraft, escorted by Mike Ginder.

Completely surprised is Dee Ann Debano to hear her name as Queen, 1976.

Basketball excort, John Forester gives Dee Ann her Royal kiss.

Four Kindergarteners were chosen by Stuco to carry the crown, robe, sceptor, and flowers.

Escorted by Bill Cox is Debbie Ward.

SBHS students and Alumni enjoy dancing to the music of Glass Apple on the deck of the gym.

Building For The Future

The South Barber Chieftains ended their basketball season with the A-Team resulting in a 1-12 record.

With only two seniors, Dee Ann Debano and Roberta Graves, leading the squad, the team of young members is looking forward to building a stronger program in the following years.

The A-Team had a tough season and put in many nights of hard practicing and training.

The B-Team fought valiantly and closed their season with a 5-6 record. The B-Team placed second in the Sharon Invitational Tournament, defeating Sharon 26-11 and losing to Chaparral 25-47.

"Get on the yellow submarine, Russ," says Jeff Sternberger to Russell Molz as they leave for Regional track meet.

"Only 10 more laps to go, Kevin."

Sport Snaps

Doing the "Bump" during tennis practice is Linda Becker.

"Jump, Scott! See Scott Jump!" yells Terry Coulter (22) to Scott Mathews (15).

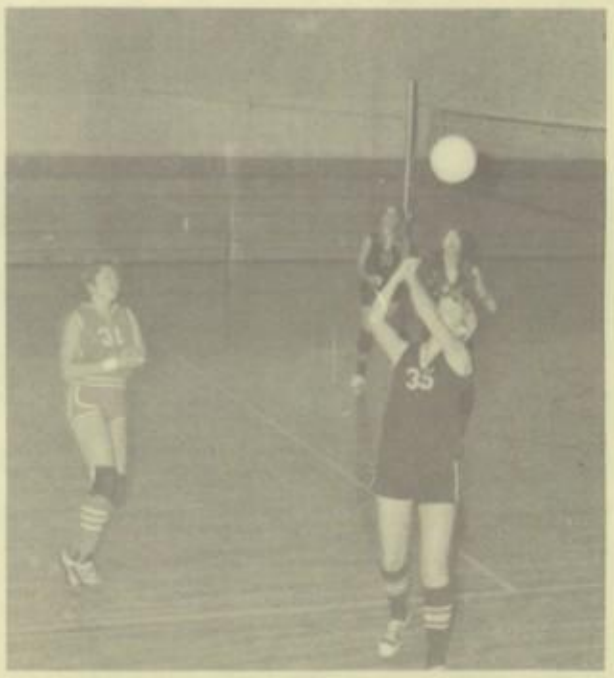
Aren't you glad you use Dial? (Larry Eckert)

It's a bird; it's a plane; it's Jeff Sternberger!

Displaying his form that took him to the state tennis tournament in doubles is Dan Forester.

"How high the moon!" states Mark Watts.

Winning the regional tennis tournament by defeating Hays is the tennis doubles team Dan and John Forester. Record 21-4.



"Oops, Connie, you're heading the wrong way," yells Shelley Wolgamott to Connie Newton as Debbie Ward and Dee Ann Debano look on.

A Year Of Discovery

Discovering new techniques, ideas, and abilities marked the year for the high school faculty.

Lesson plans, committee meetings, faculty meetings, activities, and sponsorships kept them busy outside of the regular time spent in the classroom. From music to science, home economics to physical education, the students were aware that this was "A year of discovery."

The 1976 Chieftain Yearbook Staff would like to thank Mr. Jack Wilson, Chris Wornkey, Judy Burns, and Jill Wiedman for all the hard work and cooperation they put into making the 1976 CHIEFTAIN possible. The staff would especially like to recognize co-editor Annette Conrad for all the hand lettering she did on the theme pages. Also, we would like to thank the merchants from Kiowa and the surrounding communities who helped finance the yearbook through their thoughtfulness and generosity in purchasing advertisements in the 1976 CHIEFTAIN.
